Student Assistance Program

WHO?

Pennsylvania's SAP is a school-wide resource for students and families, who are experiencing barriers to learning because of a variety of reasons which may cause concern.

WHY?

Some reasons why students are referred are (but not limited to):

- Withdrawing from family, friends, and/or school
- No longer spending time with old friends; changing friends.
- Unexplained physical injuries
- Talking about suicide
- Depression, Aggression, Lying, Low self-esteem, Destructive decisions, Decreased motivation
- Defying authority (home or school)
- Experimenting/ possible addiction with drugs and/or alcohol
- Sudden drop in grades or Sudden change in behavior
- Reluctant school attendance; poor attendance
- Reaction to recent death/divorce/relationship problem
- Trouble transitioning to a new school or home

HOW?

If you feel that you or your friend is in need, you can confidentially:

- reach out to one of our team members
- place a referral in one of the concern boxes
