

Mrs. Ricci's Computer Class

Rules:

1. Follow directions the first time!
2. Come to class prepared (notebook, writing utensil, charged chromebook, etc.) and ready to begin.
3. Be seated when the bell rings! NO walking around the room.
4. Ask to go to the bathroom, fountain, garbage can, or sharpen pencil. One at a time and NOT during instruction.
5. No foul language or unauthorized electronics.
6. Be respectful (don't take others' belongings, raise your hand to speak, wait to be called on, etc.).
7. No food/candy/gum/drinks.
8. No cheating or allowing others to cheat off you.
9. Report any damage, connectivity issues, or malfunctions immediately.
10. If you are found on a site or application that was not assigned, you will receive a writing assignment.
11. Return all necessary paperwork signed (if applicable) within the timeframe given.
12. Look up class info on our Google Classroom. If absent, make up your work.

Consequences: Warning, writing assignment, detention, phone call home, principal visit, central detention, etc. You will receive a failing grade for cheating. Severe clause: Principal visit.

Grading Procedures: Students will receive grades based on the assignments/projects turned in. Grading will be based on a "points" system. You lose points for late work. If students need extra help, I am available at the end of the day. Let me know if you wish to stay.

I am looking forward to a successful school year. By all of us working together, a rewarding experience is ahead for all of us. A parent's role in a child's education is vital for a child to do well. By you, the parent, knowing about your child's progress, students will have more of an incentive to do better. I update grades on Skyward often. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me at Solomon (570) 826-7224 or via email (preferred) jricci@wbasd.k12.pa.us.

Sincerely,
Mrs. J. Ricci
