

Title I Parent & Family Engagement Policy

2022-2023

Leo E. Solomon-Plains Middle School
Wilkes-Barre Area School District

We at Solomon-Plains Middle School, strive for children to succeed by creating a positive learning environment in our classrooms. This impact is done through the collaboration of teachers and families working together.

Objective:

The entire method of education is improved when the home and school work together as a team. Leo E. Solomon-Plains Middle School Title I Program values the contributions of parents and families. We have jointly established this Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy in collaboration with parents and families, as outlined in Every Student Succeed Act (ESSA Section 1116). This policy will be dispersed to parents at the beginning of the school year during our Open House and Title I Workshop Events. It will also be sent home to all parents in our beginning of the year welcome packet. The policy is available on our District webpage. The Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy will be reviewed and updated annually to meet the needs of parents, families, and the school.

Components:

The Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy summarizes how Leo E. Solomon-Plains Middle School carries out the following ESSA requirements cooperatively with parents and families and how the school will:

1. Involve parents and students in the joint progress, preparation, evaluation, and enhancement of the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy during an annual meeting held at the school. Parents and Families will also have the opportunity to deliver feedback and modification suggestions on our revision form utilized throughout the school year.
2. Invite all parents to an annual meeting to inform parents of the schools' involvement as a Schoolwide Title I school and to explain the requirements, and rights for parents to be involved.
3. Offer a flexible number of meetings, in the morning and/or the afternoon/evening to accommodate parents and families' schedules.
