Gertrude Hawk ~ Circa 1936

GENERATIONS of GOODNESS

Gertrude Hawk began dipping chocolates in her Pennsylvania kitchen in 1936. Her family, like many others during the Great Depression, were struggling to make ends meet. Gertrude turned to the best skill she had: chocolate making. She had learned the craft of chocolate making and dipping as a teenager at a local shop. One of Gertrude's first customers was a local church looking to raise funds. Since then, Gertrude Hawk Chocolates has partnered with hundreds of schools, non-profit and community organizations to help them raise funds to carry out their missions. This brochure you are holding in your hands is the result of generations of hard work dedicated to quality and craftsmanship.

Thank you for considering a purchase of Gertrude Hawk Chocolates to support an organization or school. Today, Gertrude Hawk's grandson and great-grandchildren work in the company she founded and we have grown to be a locally and nationally respected chocolate maker. Our goal is to continue the tradition of bringing delicious chocolate covered happiness to the world for generations to come!
